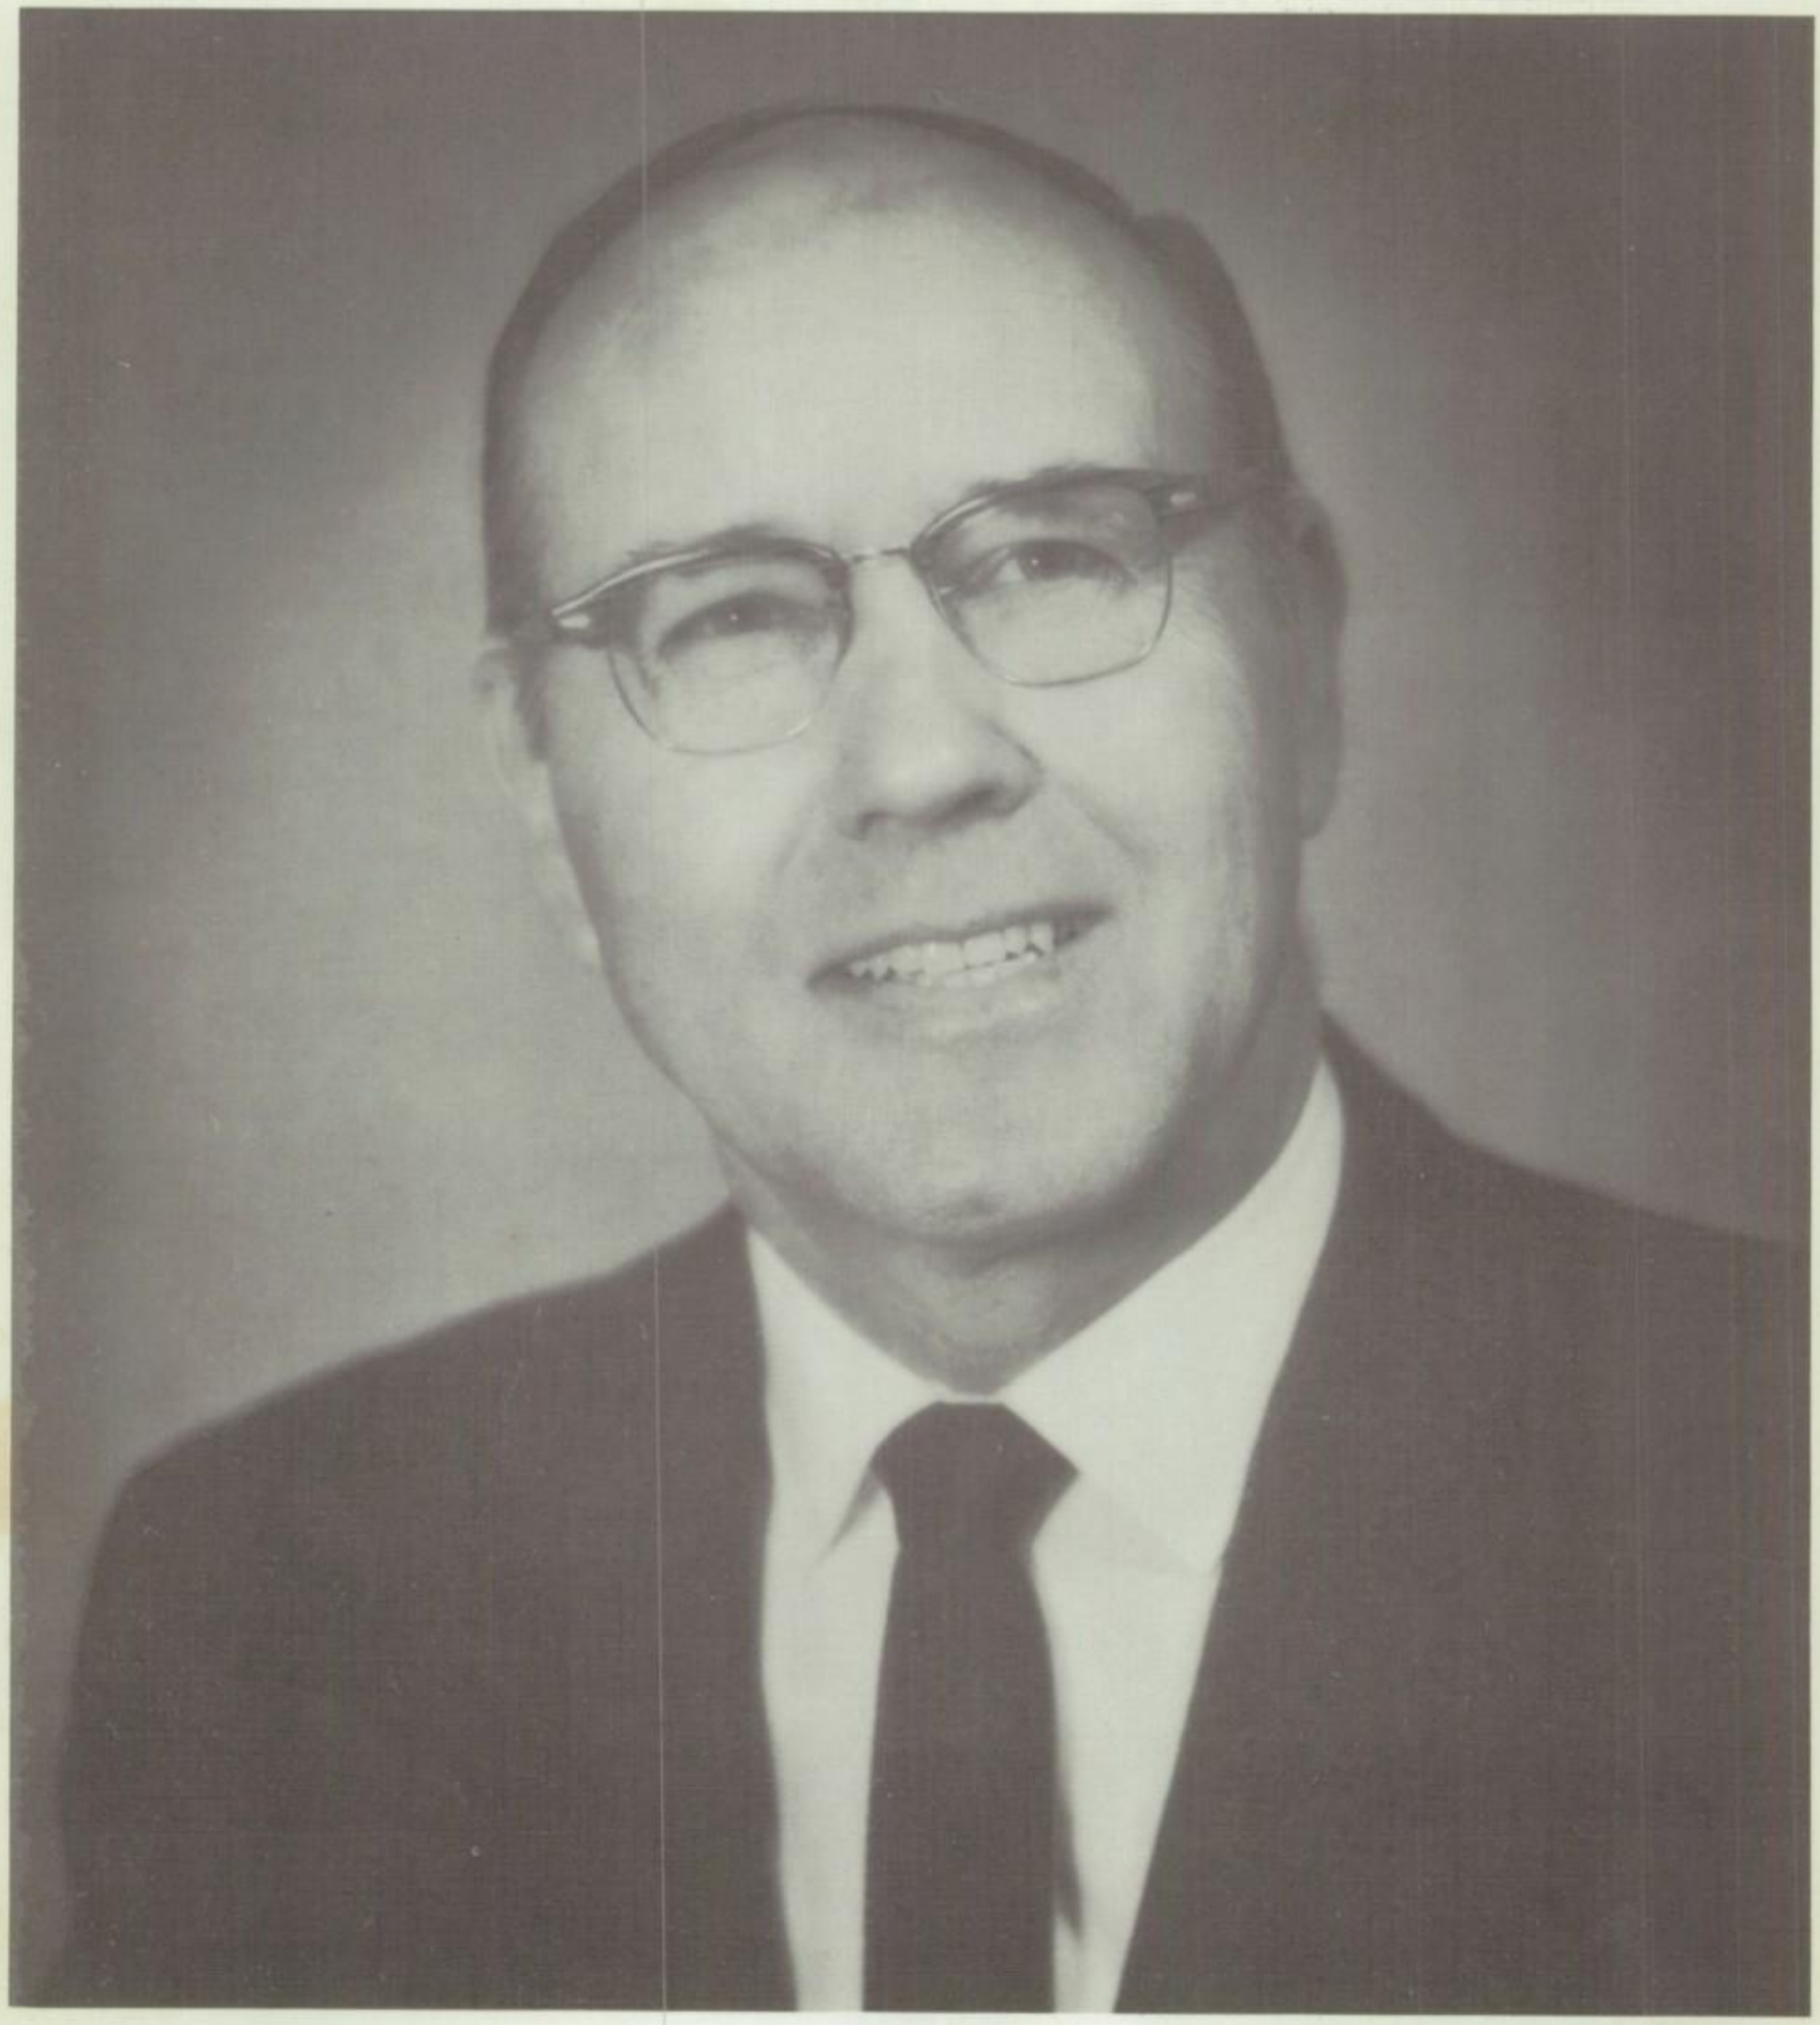
DEDICATION



We the Bulldog Staff, and the students of Sulphur High School wish to dedicate our 1962 Bulldog to Mr. J. B. Best, principal of S.H.S. Because of the guidance and understanding which he has given to each of us, and for taking over the great responsibility of being our High School principal, we now attempt to express in part the deep appreciation which we feel and to commend him for a job extremely well-done.

We want to extend our congratulations and best wishes for continued success.

EDITOR'S FOREWORD

The yearbook staff of Sulphur High School proudly presents the 1962 edition of the Bulldog. It is our hope that as you turn through these pages you will be reminded of the different events which occurred during the 1961-62 school year--athletic events and scholastic achievements, class parties and banquets, pep assemblies and other assemblies, class and organizational trips, and other happy occassions.

To you who are seniors, this is a year not to be forgotten and we hope that the 1962 yearbook recalls some of the wonderful and happy memories of your last year in Sulphur High School.

The staff wishes to thank the people of Sulphur who helped to support our annual and my personal thanks goes to a very efficient staff and wonderful sponsor.

THE SUPERINTENDENT'S GREETINGS

It is with pleasure I greet the Students of Sulphur Schools: The basic responsibility of our schools is the development of your intellect. It is my hope and desire that each of you has been inspired and challenged to high levels of personal development and academic achievement.

When one can travel 86,000 miles in less than five hours and see four sunsets in one day, the time has come for us to set higher standards for ourselves and to strive to meet and exceed them.

We will follow your future achievements with great interest.

WILL

We, the seniors of 1962, being more or less sound of mind, do declare this to be our official class will.
Phil Arms - all of his speeches and themes on coon hunting to Claude Beavers.
Jerry Bird - his year's supply of pencils to Mickey Warren.
Carolyn Baker - her quiet ways to Donna Royster.
Gale Barnes - her ability to lose her voice to Mr. Earsom. Use it to the very best possible advantage!
Betty Biggerstaff - her weekly appointments at Georgia's Beauty Shop to Harold Hunt.
Melva Boyd - her position as librarian to Ken Beavers.
Charles Black - his track ability to Meatball.
Kathy Brown - her quiet ways to Davalyn McClure.
Carolyn Bumpass - her talent for keeping quiet to Leta Collins.
Carol Burns - her red hair to Leota Nichols. Now, at least you'll save money.
Dorothy Cade - her ability to do the "mashed potato" to Coach Cleveland.
Sandra Cagle - her nick-name "Droob" to Harris Penner. Now at least they won't have to call you Pinky.
David Clary - his share of the cafeteria food to Max Runyan.
Joe Colton - his laugh to Jamie John.
Eugene Copenhaver - his ability to do nothing to George Peveto. Not that you're in need of improvement, George.
J. T. Cotter - his title of "Mr. Legs of 1962" to Ronnie Pierce. Make way! J's off to join the chorus line.
Floyd Cox - his carefree attitude toward life to Frank Knurek.
Marion Denney - having been willed numerous other people's walks in the years past, Marion now can will her walk to someone else. Karen Green, you can have it, but live up to its reputation!
Glenda Doty - her love for young, unmarried school teachers to some deserving girl.
Cecil Dowd - all her love for Duke Wagner to Lurajean Cade.
Bobbye Dubberstein - her ability to stick with one boy to Melva Brown.
Dean Ellis - his love for hot rods to Gilbert Jenkins and Arvin Eidson.
Carolyn Flowers - her tiny waistline to Carolyn Oakley. Those late hours don't help much.
Kay Frantz - her bottle of Lady Clairol to Linda Hickman. It works wonders over-night.
Geneal Freeman - her ability to get a letter every day to Julie Lewis.
Jim Fulton - his driver's license to Richard Sherfield. After one more ticket, Jim sure won't need it.
Elaine Gibbard - her place in girls' quartet, her place as cheerleader, and her great times at All-State to Marilyn Wilson. Live it up, kid.
Mack Hale - his English book to Silas in the hope he'll take it out and burn it.
Rick Harris - his ability to pass Spanish to Pable (Chipper) Anderson.
Randy Hefner - his wrestling ability to Truman Cade.
Kaye Howe - her ambition to be a veterinarian to Karen Green.
Pat Howe - his Rook cards to Elaine Lester.
Susie Hunter - her sense of humor to Janice Davis. Let's have just ONE smile, Jan.
Brenda Jones - her long bus ride to school every morning to Mack Hale. You're certainly welcome to it.
Kenneth Kelton - his sleeping chair in U.S. History to Tommy Payne.
Doris Kinney - her loud mouth to Becky Cooper.
Doug Kirby - his bowlegs to Betty Cope. They'll be especially useful in twirling fire batons.
Marian Kirkendoll - her hair to Lavonna Breckner - but only on the condition that she doesn't shave it all off.
Jim Lannom - His frequent trips to Red Dunn's to "Cuckleburr" Pierce.
Frank Lance - all his safe driving awards to Charlene Kitt - No more wrecks, please.
Judy Lerning - all her fun in 5th hour study hall to Wilma Sherfield. Live it up for me next year!
Robin Lewis - her ability to stay out of trouble to her sister, Sue.
Linda Lowrance - her barrel-racing ability to Jeanie Brown.
Herbert Manous - his like for making long speeches to anyone foolish enough to try it.
Lela Mathis - her ability to get along with teachers to Freddie Freeman.
Brenda McAffrey - all her sweaters to Gretna Mann. Please don't stretch them, Gretna.
Wayne McCracken - his bull rope to Leo Barnes.
Carl Melson - his twisting ability to Charles Walker.
Myrtle Moore - her ability to land a bowling ball in the gutter to Sue Collins.
Patsy Nelson - her half of their room to her sis, Shirley. Keep it cleaner than I did, please.
Dwight Payne - his high position at Sooners to Charles McHatton.
Sharon Payne - her brownie medal to Mick Warren to help him through next year.
Carolyn Pierce - her place as 4-H Queen to Felix Frazier. Wear the jacket well.
John Pope - his talent for bookkeeping to Gilbert Jenkins.
1. David Rehbine - his nick-name "Hoppy" to Lynn Richburg.
2. Shirley Reeves - her twisting ability to the 2nd hour Junior English class. Now they won't have to have Seniors demonstrate.

Ken Riley - his position as Student Council President to Arvin Eidson.
Marva Ritzinger - her inquisitive nature to Melva Brown, but remember to use it with caution Melva, because "curiousity killed the cat."
Phillip Ross - his 12 years of knowledge to Mick Warren.
Dale Runyan - his shop ability to Truman Cade.
Michael de Socarraz - his Spanish fluency to Richard Sherfield.
Mary Suther - her grouchy disposition to Janice Davis and Ginger Lawrance. Now fight over it.
Judith Thomas - her collection of parking tickets to City Hall.
Brenda Walker - her credit in Senior English to Charles - just in case he needs it.
Barbara Wano - her footsteps to anyone who cares to go around in circles.
Bertie Watson - her dancing ability to Doris Lease.
Tommy Wells - his fun in square dancing to all juniors.
Sharon Wheatley - her lovely soprano voice to Nick Schwake.
Junior Williams - his ability to find his way home fromr Al's to J. B. Hale.
Larry Williams - his office as FFA President to Mike Hunter.
Suzi Williams - her height to Tommy Payne - Now you'll be sure to beat Wynnewood next year.
Pat Wommack - her cute smile and friendly personality to Becky Cooper.
Margaret Woodell - her long black hair to Coach Cleveland. Now maybe he'll look as young as he insists he is.
Mike Wright - his private Spanish lessons to some deserving person.
Sharon Youngblood - her ability to get along with her history teacher to Betty Laughlin.

The Senior Class - its deepest appreciation for the kindness shown us this year by our sponsors Mr. Merritt and Mr. Stout.
Also----all our non-excused admits to Nurse Webb.
Also----that sterling member of our class, Mick Warren, to the Juniors. Treat him gently.

PROPHECY

The year is 1972. The Sulphur seniors of 1962 have set off on a pleasure cruise around the world for their first reunion. The "Good Ship S.H.S." is manned by a full crew of experts including navigators Mike Socarraz and Rick Harris. Dwight Payne, Frank Lance, Jim Fulton, and Mike Wright are, of course, General Supervisors. It will come as no surprise to find that Ken Riley is our Chaplain. We all remember how Floyd Cox loved leadership, and sure enough, now is our Captain. We may never get out of the harbor, but then, who cares?

The funds for this trip are furnished by the Rosserfeller Corporation owned by our own millionaire financier Phillip Ross and his fiance Marian Kirkendoll.

We knew with our class, there were bound to be accidents, so we brought along our own medical staff. Doctor Colton and nurses Kathy Brown, Carolyn Baker and Melva Boyd are prepared for any emergency. They may have to treat us all for ptomaine poisoning because the only cooks we could find were Randy Hefner and Herbert Manus. We have spaghetti three times a day, so whenever the dinner bell rings, we scream "Man the ropes, men!"

Sandra Cagle furnished our food supplies for the trip from her farm in California. We understand she specializes in elephant-sized chickens.

There's never a dull moment, for we have imported talent straight from New York City--Charles Ray Black's Combo. You remember Charles Ray. He's the originator of the new dance sensation, the "Squirm." His combo also features the new singing stars of Broadway, Cecil Dowd and Dorothy Cade. All the way from Paris, we brought dancers from the Moulin Rouge. The "Can-can Queens," are Gale Barnes, Lela Mathis, and Carolyn Bumpass. We feel fortunate in having our own concert pianist aboard. Suzi William has just finished her latest conquest of Carnegie Hall and her publicity manager, Carl Melson, tells us she is really on her way up.

The ship's 62 Lounge is run by Marion Denney. Chief Bartender is Eugene "Snuff" Copenhaver. Only non-alcoholic drinks, of course.

Those bewildered-looking girls in the uniforms, Robin Lewis, Susie Hunter, and Brenda McAffrey, aren't from the insane asylum., they're just stewardesses. However, before this trip is over, they may be driven there.

It certainly is a sharp-looking crew, but how could it be anything else, with our own barbers, beauticians and fashion designers on board. Bird and Cotter, Inc. guarantee you a choice of any hair style you want, provided it is a Mohawk or Yul Brynner style. Sharon Payne, Brenda Jones, and Kay Frantz are our beauticians. They are the originators of the new hair style, the "pig pen," which is destined to replace the "bee hive."

Pat Wommack, Sharon Wheatley, and Sharon Youngblood have taken over the "House of Dior," and are now the world's foremost fashion designers.

We are sorry to lose Shirley Reeves, but she is leaving us at London where she is going to inscribe her epitaph in Poet's Corner at Westminster Abbey.

Carolyn Flowers, Bertie Watson, and Margaret Woodell are taking it easy on this trip. They've earned a vacation from their tasks as confidential secretaries to the vice-presidents of the Amalgamated Pickle-Pickers Association in Dallas.

Unfortunately Mary Suther could not be with us on our voyage due to a Mau Mau uprising in Africa where she is a missionary. Patsy Nelson and Judy Lemings are also missing from our crew because they couldn't tear themselves away from their surfboards in Hawaii. Patsy, there are no trout in those waters!

To make sure no-one is bored, Myrtle Moore, Judith Thomas and Barbara Wano have signed on as social directors. Their specialty is bowling. There is a miniature golf course on deck and Carolyn Pierce is caddying in her go-cart. Remembering her driving, golfers beware. A major crisis has arisen. Someone has removed the volleyball and set up a basketball court instead. Could David Clary and Dale Runyan be around?

We seem to have quite a menagerie on board with everyone's pet dogs, cats, turtles, goldfish, and even two rodeo horses owned by our rodeo circuit riders, Tommy Wells and Linda Lowrance. Kenneth Kelton, Wayne McCracken, and Larry Williams wanted to bring along their prize steers, but we discouraged them. Phil Arms' coon dog just chased somebody's pet raccoon up the flag pole, so it's a good thing we have Kaye Howe and Pat Howe along to act as veterinarians.

Elaine Gibbard, Geneal Freeman, and Glenda Doty have made quite a name for themselves in the world of cheerleading. They have established a world-famous cheerleading clinic and have almost succeeded in removing the spirit and pep from yells.

Doris Kinney has become famous in another field. She has expanded her husband's newspaper into a nationally-read journal. Marva Ritzinger (you might know) is writing the paper's gossip column. Brenda Walker writes stirring editorials on "Underwater Basketweaving" and "Survival in Lower Mongolia."

Betty Biggerstaff is now manager of her own Chevrolet agency. Mack Hale, Junior Williams, and John Pope are her top mechanics.

Over in the corner playing a rough game of Rook are the two surviving couples of all the romances in the Senior year--Bobbye and Jimmy Lannom and Carol and Doug Kirby.

We've had only major mishap so far. During a heated discussion on politics, David Rehbine and Dean Ellis fell over-board, but we threw them a life-raft and at last look, they were all right.

HISTORY

Let's go back about 12 years from last September. That would be September of 1949. That was a very important day in the life of our Seniors because that was our first day of school. Washington was invaded by Marian Kirkendoll, Patsy Nelson, Mary Suther, Pat Wommack, David Clary, Floyd Cox, Jim Fulton, Douglas Kirby, Wayne McCracken, Gale Barnes, Kathy Brown, Glenda Doty, Ken Kelton, Carl Melson, Herbert Manous, and John Pope. Linda Lowrance and Sharon Youngblood were here part of the year but they got itchy feet and moved - Linda to Alabama, and Sharon to Ardmore. Remember at Cameron in the 1st grade when Robin Lewis, Suzi Williams, Tommy Wells, J. T. Cotter, Dale Runyan, Phillip Ross, Sandra Cagle, Betty Biggerstaff, Jim Lannom, and David Rehbine used to play boy chase girl? Times haven't changed much, but now the girls do the chasing.

After our first rowdy year, we were ready for the second grade. Washington gained Linda Lowrance from Georgia, Judy Thomas from Mill Creek, Margaret Woodell from Clarietta, Sharon Youngblood from Ardmore, and Larry Williams from Joy. Carolyn Pierce came from Tupelo for two weeks, but she decided she would rather go to Cameron. Cameron just gained one, but that was enough because that was Randy Hefner from Oklahoma City.

The third grade teachers did not have an easy time, for Judi Leming came to Washington School from Oklahoma City, and Marion Denney came to Cameron from Duncan, Oklahoma. Cameron lost Carolyn Pierce to Nebraska. Herbert Manous decided to leave Washington and go back to Mill Creek.

In the 4th grade Washington lost Carl Melson to Shawnee, Oklahoma, but gained Herbert Manous back from Mill Creek, Brenda McAffery from Phoenix, Arizona, Lela Mathis from Vinita, and Carolyn Pierce from Nebraska. Cameron lost Judy Thomas when she transferred to Washington.

In the 5th grade Carl Melson came back from Shawnee to Cameron, but before the year was over, he decided to finish at Washington. Cameron also gained Carolyn Flowers from Ada. Carolyn Pierce and Sharon Youngblood transferred from Washington.

Boy! Those were great days when Cameron and Washington used to play each other in baseball and basketball. Remember the yells we used to do? That year Cameron gained Charles Ray Black, Dorothy Cade and Cecil Dowd from Dunbar Grammar School, Kay Howe, Pat Howe, and J. B. Hale from Nebo, and Rick Harris from Mexico. Washington gained Shirley Reeves from Wapanucka, and Judy Thomas, David Rehbin, Kay Howe, Pat Howe, and J. B. Hale transferred from Cameron before the year was over. Frank Lance, Susie Hunter, and Bertie Watson joined us from Daugherty.

We were all scared and wondered what Junior High would be like, but in 1955 we found out that it wasn't as bad as we had thought. There we were, Cameron and Washington kids no longer rivals. We gained Elaine Gibbard from Japan that year and then she decided she wasn't through sight-seeing, so she moved to Germany.

In the eighth grade we quit knocking everyone down in the halls because we learned we had plenty time to get from class to class. We gained Ken Riley from Ardmore, Eugene Copenhaver from Muskogee, and Rick Harris from Mexico. Mike Wright came to us from California, Bobbye Dubberstein from Kansas, Geneal Freeman from Texas and also Phil Arms from Texas, but it wasn't long before he moved back.

Freshman year and high school at last! That year we were really proud to have Linda Lowrence as Rodeo Queen. We saw a lot of new faces that year and also gained back some familiar ones. Elaine Gibbard was back from Germany, Kay Frantz from Daughtery, Doris Kinney from Maud, Myrtle Moore from Stratford, Sharon Payne from Davis, Phil Arms came back from Texas but then moved to Ardmore. We gained Dean Ellis from Oak Grove, but lost Marian Kirkendoll to Ardmore.

Our Sophomore year we won the Rodeo Queen contest for the second consecutive year with Kaye Howe as our candidate. We gained Marian Kirkendoll back from Ardmore, Marva Ritzinger from Fort Worth, Brenda Walker from Ardmore, Barbara Wano from Shawnee, Phil Arms from Ardmore, Melva Boyd from Purcell, and Carolyn Bumpass from Roff. We were sorry to lose Sharon Payne to Daughtery.

As Juniors we were excited about the day we would invite the Seniors as guests to the Junior-Senior Banquet. That year, Marva Ritzinger was elected "S" Club Sweetheart. We gained Rick Harris from Brazil, Carolyn Baker from Mangum, Dwight Payne, Sharon Payne, Junior Williams, Brenda Jones and Mack Hale from Daughtery. As juniors we were proud to secretary both semesters in the Student Council elections, three officers in F. H. A., and two offices in F. F. A. We had three members of All-State Chorus, two members of mixed quartet, two members in girls quartet, two members in girls trio, and president of the vocal department. We also had two Junior cheerleaders, three twirlers, three as officers in Pep Club, and one officer in Band.

At last the big year arrived. Those who joined us that year were Sharon Wheatley, from California, Joe Colton from Arkansas, and Mike Socarraz from Cushing. One of the highlights of the year was when we won all Student Council offices the second semester, and all but one office first semester. We had three boys in basketball, 8 in football, 4 in track, 4 in wrestling, and 7 in baseball. We held the office of president in FHA, FFA, Letterman's Club, Pep Club, and Air Scouts. We have girls holding five offices in pep club and FHA. Three of the five twirlers were Seniors and five out of the six cheerleaders were Seniors. We also had drum majorette of the band. We were also proud to have one of the girls from our class elected Spanish Queen. Five of the senior boys made all-district in football and 6 of them made Arbuckle Conference. The National Honor Society had 16 members from the Senior class and the Oklahoma Honor Society had 6 members from the Senior class.

We the Seniors of 1962 respectfully submit this as the History of the Senior Class.
